PROMOTION & SHUFFLING POLICY

PROMOTION POLICY

- The promotion policy will be based on mandates applied by CBSE / KHDA / Ministry of Education (MOE).
- It is essential to get the following minimum marks for mandatory subjects for promotion to the next grade.
  - Arabic: 50/100
  - Islamic Education (for Muslim students only): 50/100
  - UAE Social Studies & Moral Education: 40/100
- For all other subjects the minimum pass mark is 33/100.
- As per CBSE / KHDA guidelines, 75% attendance is mandatory for promotion to the next grade.
- If a student is sick and cannot appear for the test / examination, a Medical Certificate approved by DHA / Ministry of Health (MOH) must be provided.
- Students must not be absent for 2 consecutive examinations of the same subject within a term: for e.g., PT1 and PT2 / PT1 and Half Yearly Examination. Such student(s) will be marked absent.
- If the student has not secured the prescribed minimum marks in all subjects, the decision to promote rests with the School.
- All new admission students who join school till the first week of September will have to write the Periodic tests / Half Yearly Examinations as scheduled by the school. The school diary will have the details of the schedules.

Grade 9

- The students will be promoted to Grade 10 only if she secures more than 33%, as per final result in all the CBSE subjects.
- If the student fails in one or two CBSE subjects she will have to take retest in those subjects provided she has passed in the internal assessment of all subjects. The student has to pass the retest (s) to be promoted to Grade 10.
- If the student fails in more than two CBSE subjects, she will have to repeat the grade.

Grade 11

The students will be promoted to Grade 12 only if they secure more than 33% in both Theory and Practical (separately), as per final result. If the student fails in one (CBSE) subject she will have to take a retest. The student has to pass the retest to be promoted. If the student fails in more than one CBSE subject, she will have to repeat the grade.

IMPORTANT: Policy for Shuffling:

The right to shuffle classes at the end of the academic year due to academic or logistic considerations rests with the school.
